“ So sorry, we just heard the news.

We always loved Al with his jokes and funny expressions. Our best story of Al isWe just moved into the complex and we were working hard all day moving in our personal items.

It's now around 5:00pm and we are out front and taking a break from the long day of moving, When from across the parking lot, we see two of our neighbors, Al & Judy, walking towards us with a few beers in hand. they handed Mark & I a Corona Light with limes on top, they introduced themselves and said it's great to have young people moving in and "welcome to the neighborhood". The four of us stayed out front and talked and laughed for a while. May you rest in peace, Al.
