

Allan M. Krieff

July 10, 1934 - September 7, 2019

Allan M. Krieff, born July 10, 1934 in Brooklyn, New York, died unexpectedly - and peacefully - in his sleep on September 7, 2019 in Delray Beach, Florida. He recently celebrated his 85th birthday with his loving family.

The oldest son of Benjamin and Anne Krieff, Allan graduated from NYU - and spent over 50 years as a “mad man”, having owned and operated his own successful advertising agency in South Florida for most of his life. He created well-known campaigns for clients including Century Village (Red Buttons), Baron’s Men’s Stores and a host of real estate and retail accounts. He was highly respected in his field, won numerous awards and wrote several books about advertising. He worked hard and loved what he did.

Allan is survived by his loving wife Beth of 62 years (who he adored), his best buddy Buttons (his Shih Tzu), daughter Debra Leibowitz, son David Krieff and grandchildren Brandon (Ellen) Leibowitz, Ryan Leibowitz, Benjamin Krieff and Truman Krieff.

Contributions in Allan’s memory can be made to the Richard Sharpstein Humanitarian Fund at Temple Beth Sholom in Miami Beach, Florida.

Allan lived a wonderful, full, interesting and happy life. He will be greatly missed.

Tribute Wall

“ Allan M. Krieff

January 29, 2023 at 12:14 PM

“ Allan was an important part in the Century Village saga working closely with my dad H. Irwin Levy, Red Buttons and all the marketing for the villages. H was such an important part of the team as well as a great guy. I am saddened to hear of his loss.
Mark F Levy

Mark F Levy - September 11, 2019 at 04:10 PM

Thanks Mark for your note. My dad really enjoyed working with your dad and Red Buttons. It was a special part of his life.
Best,
Debbie Leibowitz

Debra Leibowitz - September 11, 2019 at 08:01 PM

*Fond Memories.... A good heart has stopped with a peaceful ending. To live is the rarest thing in the world...most people just exist. Allan lived.....& worked and enjoyed life! I had the pleasure of sharing in the happiness and working with the KRIEFF family for over 20 years! Sharing in the sorrow of all family and friends
My LOVE to All. Lauren Plake*

Lauren Plake - September 12, 2019 at 11:47 PM