

Arline Rosalind Zeldman

September 27, 1942 - March 8, 2026

Fun-loving and absolutely fabulous, Arline Rosalind Zeldman's life was tragically cut short on Sunday, March 8, 2026 when she died from injuries sustained in a Boynton Beach, Florida car accident.

Born on September 27, 1942 in New York City, the loving mother of Michael Zeldman of Montville, N.J., and Kristin Mariani and Jason Zeldman of Denver, Colorado, was 83 years old. She was also canine mother to sidekick Zoey.

Arline moved to Florida from New Jersey and quickly found loyal friends to delight in competitive card games and girls' nights out. She cherished her role as grandmother to Mason Mariani, with whom she enjoyed absolutely everything.

The fun-loving and fiercely loyal sister of Sharon Comiteau, Bonnie Belo, and Ian Lobell, Arline was a playful, giggly and beloved aunt to five nieces and nephews and a bevy of great nieces and nephews—not to mention buddy brother-in-laws Joel Comiteau and John Belo.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, March 13 at 10:00 am at Beth Israel Chapel (Boynton Beach), 11115 Jog Rd, Boynton Beach, FL 33437 or on Zoom Via:

“ I met Arline and Zoe several years ago when I first moved to Coral Lakes and joined the “dog walkers” in the neighborhood. Arline was always smiling, happy and joyful and it was obvious Zoe had such a special place in her heart. Her presence will be missed. My sympathy and condolences to her loved ones. May her memory bring peace.

“ Dearest Kris, Michael, Jason, Mason and all who Arline loved - it with a very heavy heart that I write my condolences. You always encouraged me and accepted me and everyone - your presence always lit up the atmosphere and you will do so in the heavens I know it!! May the sweetness she had and gave, with devotion to all of you live inside your hearts forever - may memories of her goodness shine upon you -- i pray for peace and lightness in your hearts during this what I cannot imagine difficult time. You will be so miss "Arline" you always wanted us to call you by your name. Love, and sincere condolences - im so sorry. Marie (aka murph)

“ I would often see Arline walking her Zoe, as I mine (Zoë). She always had a smile on her face and pleasant demeanor about her. Tragic news of her passing. May her memory be a comforting blessing.
