I think of you so often. Wish, you would have felt like visiting the last time we were done. I know you had your reasons. But we knew how sick you were. I often think of you. But I know you are with the love of your life and don't suffer anymore. For that I'm glad, I loved you enough to let you go. I'm sorry we weren't closer, I could have seen you more. I hope you're dancing!💜
