

David E. Wallach

December 12, 1931 - May 29, 2021

David Wallach, 87, of Boca Raton, FL, passed away peacefully on May 29 with his children by his side. David was born in 1933 in Oberaula, Germany to parents Siegmund and Gerda.

David and his siblings were able to escape the persecution that was just beginning in Germany in 1939 to the Bronx, NY. He remained in the NY metro area serving in management and bookkeeping for most of his life where he had 7 children, Miriam, Ruthi, Tova, Jack, Luis, Stephen and Michelle. In 2012, David retired in Boca Raton, FL where he met his wife Mary.

A devout follower of the Jewish faith, David could be found most days at the B'nai Torah Congregation in Boca Raton. He loved his children and can be remembered most for his sense of humor, love of music, acts of community service and faith.

David is survived by his wife, Mary, his 7 children and 70 grandchildren and great grandchildren. He is predeceased by his loving sister Senta and his parents.

A funeral service will be held at Palm Beach Memorial Park on June 1 at 12 PM with Rabbi Steinhardt. Shiva will be held at the family's home in Boca Raton. The family would like to thank the community and Trustbridge Care Center for their ongoing support.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the B'nai Torah Congregation in Boca Raton, FL.
