

Gail Pritt

July 29, 1951 - April 1, 2021

LOVING WIFE , MOTHER , GRANDMOTHER and SISTER.

Missed by many - friends, coworkers, neighbors and all she smiled upon. Too soon to be gone,- we know she is watching - and even laughing - we remember the best of her always. Gail could lighten any room with her quick wit and ability to make just about anybody laugh. . Always in our hearts and memories - greatly missed. LOVE YOU.

“ so many great memories about this truly loving & caring friend.gail would be angry with me if I was too sentimental. going back almost forty seven years ago at myra's & my wedding when gail in her ninth month kept telling us she was going to give birth to Jason at the reception.gail always called me brownie (also some other more colorful names) she would invite us to the apartment in queens and have plans to go out with albert & myra to shop because good ol brownie would babysit for Jason. remember going to st. vincent's when Melissa & Valerie were born. the look on her face was priceless and so was her description of all the events that took place in the hospital concerning her precious preemies. a person could not ask for better friends then gail & albert. it's very hard for me to say one name without the other. I always considered them family my kids always loved gail she was like the great aunt they never had.

I remember our trips to atlantic city. gail always refused to wear her glasses or wear a watch. drove albert up the wall when we had to meet for dinner. but that was gail. good luck trying to convince her to do it your way.

gail was truly a unique individual. she could always make you laugh in any situation drive you crazy with some of her antics and always was there to comfort you in a tense situation

I remember all the nights the four of us would play bridge. albert & I one team gail and myra the other. gail once told us how proud she was albert stopped smoking all the while he lit up at the table but gail never noticed.because was so happy to be beating us .

the more she taunted & teased me the more I loved her. a better friend no one could ask for. when they moved to florida to be with the kids and then with the grandkids I was so happy for them yet at the same time it broke my heart that I wouldn't see them like in the good old days

I know I could write a thousand more things but it hurts so much that I won't see her again

I truly miss this wonderful ,caring & kind person who will always live in my heart forever

my heart goes out to Al , the kids and all the family*

love

“ From my earliest memories, there is no Uncle Albert without Aunt Gail. Always together. For 49 years they were inseparable. From my earliest memories of family events, Aunt Gail was always there. Her timing for a witty comment was always spot on and pretty accurate.

Aunt Gail always wanted to make sure a special occasion was indeed "special". Go big! Go all out! But always find the best deal! And Aunt Gail always did.

Aunt Gail was the first person to put me on a "real" roller coaster at Bush Gardens. We were in the second row. I remember being small and I thought for sure that I was going to fall out of the restraints. It was something that my mom would never allow me to do. It was petrifying and it was fabulous and it was our secret.

Over the years there were many special occasions that we shared as a family, Family dinners for birthdays, graduations, engagements and anniversaries. The dinners that I enjoyed the most were the "just because" ones. Those were, at times, organized chaos and it was the best.

Aunt Gail would have dishes going in and out of the kitchen. As cousins we would joke around and cause a little mischief until we grew older and the tables would turn to one of our kids having Aunt Gail's mashed potatoes in their hair at dinner. I still don't know what was in that ambrosia, but the best part was the laughter. Aunt Gail had a great smile, a fabulous laugh and we all truly enjoyed the time we spent together.

“ Gail and I met in October 1967, in math class, I told her a joke and Mr. Koppelman kicked her out of class, but everyone heard her laughing out in the hall. We became friends then. Ever since then we became closer over time. I know I'm not a real relative but I feel that we were sisters. Better than relatives because we chose each other. I can't believe I will never hear Gail call me Uncle Milton again.

Myra... Not to mention Gail tinkered with giving birth at your wedding.
