“ So far I have written two posts to this memory wall and although I followed all the directions, neither one can be seen. They were long because I was writing for five different friends, but still within the guidelines. The chapel staff has no idea where they went. There is a glitch somewhere here.

So dear Pearlroth family, although I was hoping to include my memories to Marcia's tribute wall, It seems to be an impossible task. Therefore it looks like I will just send you my tribute to dear Marcia via email.

“ You know that I'm a Catholic Christian and I believe strongly in heaven - where God lives -- He has a place for all of us -- where happiness and joy are unfettered by this world. Know that I believe your Marcia is there -- probably near my wife Pat having a good talk about us husbands and how fearful we are while they live so well in joy. So don't fret about Marcia she is in God's great hands. You however is who I pray for -- You begin now a journey without her and that hurts. I pray that you find peace and love and joy soon. We're all with you call when you want to talk.

“ Dear Art, Steven and Robbie,

I am so sorry for the passing of Dear Marcia, please accept my condolences.

I have known Marcia for approximately 4 years. I go to the JCC for exercise class on Tuesday and Thursday. Afterwards, a group of us stop off at the Dunkin Doughnuts to socialize -- that's where I met Art and Marcia. We would eat lunch and have coffee over a friendly chat. This has been a weekly event for quite some time. Due to the coronavirus, no one has been meeting, but I will surely miss seeing her and our conversations whenever we get back to the JCC. Marcia is a truly awesome lady always with a smile. She will be missed greatly.

Very Truly, Helen Johnson

“ Dear Art, Steven and Robbie,

Thanks to today's technology, I would like to reflect back on some fond memories of your beloved Marcia.

Reflecting back, I remember meeting Marcia and Art in September 2015 at the Dunkin Donuts (DD) just north of their home on Jog Road. After attending a Silver Sneakers (SS) workout routine at the Mandel JCC, our group would meet at DD to socialize. Art and Marcia were regular customers at DD and our SS group became acquainted and we enjoyed many various conversations.

Even though I would only see Art and Marcia on a Tuesday, Thursday, and sometimes Sunday's for an hour or so for the next five years, we developed a bond with our conversations and concerns.

We would discuss world news events, passed and present various family stories, WWII experiences, kitchen remodeling, stock market, and health issues, etc.

As the friendship grew, Marcia and Art joined Ted, Lotty, John, Howie, Helen, Mike, Judy and myself on various occasions to celebrate a special event.

The enclosed six pictures in the Photos & Videos tab are from our various, happy events. I hope my memories/pictures will bring you some extra comfort, and please know that your dear Marcia (Queen) will be missed dearly.

Fondly, Diana Hopkins
