

Norman Berlant

February 11, 1930 - November 5, 2021

Norman Berlant, of West Palm Beach, Florida

February 11, 1930-November 5, 2021 (91 Years)

Norman passed peacefully on November 5th following a brief illness. A graduate of City College of New York, he was a lifelong CPA, retiring as a partner from Anchin, Block & Anchin nearly 30 years ago. During his career he served both his firm and the profession as a whole as a member of the board and as an officer of the NYSSCPA from which he received their Distinguished Service Award, and as a member of Council of the AICPA. He was actively involved with, and generous in his giving to, numerous charities and causes.

He was an avid golfer with a hole-in-one, and woodworker who loved creating with his hands as much as with his incredible mind.

He is survived by his wife Selma, having been predeceased by his wife of 63 years, Barbara, his children, Michael and his wife Kazue of Japan, Peter and his wife Nichol of New York and Richard of Rhode Island, and his adored grandchildren Amie, Marissa, Bailey and Callan.

He loved and was loved.

In keeping with his wishes, internment will be private.

Tribute Wall

“ Norman Berlant

January 29, 2023 at 12:14 PM

“ Mr. Berlant sold me his property in Lake Worth, in 2019. I had the pleasure of meeting him in preson but one day, and was captivated by his simplicty and warm smile. My sincere condolences to his family. I'm sure he joined his beloved wife and are enjoying golf in Heavens, as they used to do in Florida.

Helcio de Carvalho - February 12, 2022 at 12:22 PM