

Sharon Roberta Barrett-Shanks

June 21, 1940 - February 21, 2024

Sharon entered into rest, peacefully in her sleep, in the early morning hours of February 21, 2024, after battling with heart disease, and a struggle with dementia for some years. Sharon's mind and body are finally at rest.

Sharon was predeceased by her parents. Leo and Rose Galaid.

Sharon is survived by her loving husband, Ed Shanks of Delray Beach, FL, her sister Arden "Dini" Galaid Wooley of Taunton MA, her 5 children, Bonnie (Aussubel) and Tim Gallivan and of Wilmington, NC. Robin Aussubel of Clearwater, FL. Mark Aussubel and Denise Aussubel of Blackstone, MA. Michelle Barrett of Boynton Beach, FL. F. Michael Barrett of Easton, MA. 8 grandchildren and 4 Great Grandchildren

Sharon grew up in Dorchester, Roxbury and Revere, MA, was a graduate of Roxbury Memorial High School for Girls.

Sharon had a passion for playing Mah Jong with her many friends, and was an amazingly creative scrapbooker, chronicling the many events in her life and the lives of her friends and family. Sharon would often spend many hours creating the most beautiful greeting cards. It was her passion, giving her many hours and days of joy.

In Sharon's recent years, her biggest joy came from spending time with Simon, the little Maltipoo she shared with her daughter Michelle.
