SHELDON PAULL OBITUARY

Sheldon “Shelly” Paull was born on December 6, 1933 in Chicago, Illinois and died on October 26, 2021 in Lake Worth, Florida. He is survived by Joan Paull, his wife of 63 years, and his children Craig, Karen Pyferoen and Stephanie Goselin, and their spouses and partners, as well his sister Adrienne. His grandchildren include Lauren Rolfe (and great-grandchildren Aliza and Kolton), Branden Colen and Trevor Goselin, and their spouses and partners.

Shelly served in the U.S. Army as a medic in Germany after the Korean War. He later worked at Victory Quilting in sales and eventually became the owner. Shelly was beloved by everyone who met him; always ready with a joke or a humorous comment he brought a smile to everyone he met, especially overworked waitresses in crowded restaurants. Shelly was passionate about sports of all kinds, specifically baseball. He leaves behind several generations of amateur baseball players who benefited from his skilled and passionate mentorship

“ My deepest sympathies to the Paull family.
 I am a friend of Karen’s since elementary school. I remember Mr Paull as always being happy. Ready to tell a joke or funny story. I was actually part of one of his ‘gags’.
 He used to call me Jod “i”. Not Jodi (e). He said my name didn’t have an “e” so I was greeted as Jod i !!!
 Love and hugs to the family. 🌸💛

Dear Joan,

Heartfelt condolences to you. The passing of Shelly creates a void in your life that never be filled.

I can only hope that fond memories and time help to ease the awful pain of loss.

*Warmly,
Dorothy Steinmetz*
