Stanley Harvey Nalitt

February 21, 1942 – February 15, 2026

Stanley Harvey Nalitt, born February 21, 1942, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, passed away peacefully on February 15, 2026, just days before his 84th birthday.

He was the beloved son of Fay and Morris Nalitt, whose strength and values shaped the man he became.

Stanley lived a full and meaningful 83 years, leaving a lasting imprint on all who knew him. Raised in Philadelphia, he carried the grit, warmth, and unmistakable character of his hometown with him throughout his life. He was a man who understood people, not just in passing, but profoundly, and that gift shaped both his work and his relationships.

Stanley built his life through hard work, determination, and an unwavering belief in showing up for others. Over the years, he wore many hats: taxi driver, funeral home planner, employer, mentor, and friend. Whether driving someone to their destination, helping a family navigate their most difficult moments, or offering opportunity and guidance.

Stanley was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Cheryl Nalitt, and his son, Eric Nalitt. Their memories remained close to his heart throughout his life.

He is survived by his son, Bradley Nalitt; daughter-in-law, Gina Nalitt; and his cherished grandchildren: Max Nalitt, Jaimie Nalitt, Hailey Nalitt, and Harry Nalitt. His family was his greatest blessing.

Stanley positively impacted many people, to say the least, during his 83 years. He was a man who could strike up a conversation with anyone, who understood both struggle and perseverance, and who reminded us, in the most human way, that we are more alike than different. He was just like me, and he was just like you.

May his memory continue to be a source of strength and blessing to all who knew and loved him.

You lived a brilliant life.

You will be missed.

And you are always loved.
